

ANNOUNCEMENT ON SUPPORT SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS IN IBN HALDUN UNIVERSITY

Scholarship applications will be received in order to be evaluated within the scope of article 4, paragraph ten of the Directive on Undergraduate Scholarships and article 4, paragraph one, subparagraph (d) of the Directive on Graduate Scholarships, and meal, dormitory and/or cash aid may be offered to our students who will be eligible for the scholarship, within the scope of the relevant articles.

The food scholarship provides the opportunity to benefit from the cafeteria of our university as of the granting of the scholarship, and the dormitory scholarship provides the opportunity to benefit from the dormitories of our university as of the semester in which the scholarship right is granted. Monthly cash scholarship payments are made on the 15th of each month following the granting of the scholarship right, provided that the conditions determined for cash payments in the directives on scholarships are met.

All scholarship rights within this scope are valid for the relevant academic year and for a maximum of 9 months per year.

Turkish students and international students who comes from underdeveloped/developing countries that meet the application criteria can apply for the scholarship program by personally submitting the required documents to their schools between 9-18 November 2021. The applications will be evaluated by the Scholarship Commission in November, and the proposals for the candidates who are deemed eligible for scholarships within the framework of the determined quotas will be submitted to the University Board of Directors. Our students who are entitled to receive scholarships for the 2021-2022 academic year with the decision of the University Board of Directors will be informed by their school secretariat.

Students who have non-finalized applications submitted to the scholarship commission in this context, must apply again in order to be included in the new evaluation process.
